

Almost all religious groups believe in the sanctity of life. This is the idea that all life is sacred and belongs to God.

twinkl.com

Not everyone believes life begins at conception. For example, some Muslims believe that an embryo/foetus is not fully alive until it reaches the 120th day after conception. This is when it receives its soul.

twinkl.com

In the Bible, God is quoted as saying 'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you.' (Jeremiah 1: 5)

twinkl.com

If a woman becomes pregnant as the result of a rape, it could be psychologically damaging for her to go through with the pregnancy.

twinkl.com

Sometimes, it is possible to detect if a foetus will be born with serious disabilities. Some people may feel that it may be better not to continue the pregnancy.

twinkl.com

Christians believe in being loving. In certain situations, it may not be loving for a woman to be made to go through with a pregnancy.

twinkl.com

Abortion can help protect women's rights. A woman should not be expected to have a child she does not want. She owns her body and has the right to decide what happens to it.

twinkl.com

Abortion can be seen as murder. This is condemned by both the Qur'an and the Bible.

twinkl.com

Some people believe that it is wrong to abort a foetus that is found to be disabled. This is seen as discriminatory.

Abortion is allowed up to 24 weeks in the UK. Some people argue that the foetus is very developed by this point and could therefore suffer as a result of this.

Abortion Card Sort Answers

Cut out and sort the cards below into two categories: For and Against Abortion.

For

Not everyone believes life begins at conception. For example, some Muslims believe that an embryo/foetus is not fully alive until it reaches the 120th day after conception. This is when it receives its soul.

If a woman becomes pregnant as the result of a rape, it could be psychologically damaging for her to go through with the pregnancy.

Sometimes, it is possible to detect if a foetus will be born with serious disabilities. Some people may feel that it may be better not to continue the pregnancy.

Abortion can help protect women's rights. A woman should not be expected to have a child she does not want. She owns her body and has the right to decide what happens to it.

Christians believe in being loving. In certain situations, it may not be loving for a woman to be made to go through with a pregnancy.

Against

In the Bible, God is quoted as saying 'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you' (Jeremiah 1: 5).

Almost all religious groups believe in the sanctity of life. This is the idea that all life is sacred and belongs to God.

Some people believe that it is wrong to abort a foetus that is found to be disabled. This is seen as discriminatory.

Abortion can be seen as murder. This is condemned by both the Qur'an and the Bible.

Abortion is allowed up to 24 weeks in the UK. Some people argue that the foetus is very developed by this point and could therefore suffer as a result of this.